Francis Johnston, Reg. Gen. }

The petition of Thomas Stewardson on behalf of himself and the other trustees for the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, bearing date Philadelphia, 5th Month 17th 1799, stated as follows, viz. That a certain John Collins had in consequence of fraudulent deeds poll, obtained patents for two certain tracts of land, one situate in the county of Northumberland, surveyed to Samuel Caldwell in pursuance of a warrant dated in 1774; and the other situate now in Luzerne county, surveyed to said Caldwell by a warrant also dated in 1774—and requested that patents might be granted, for the said tracts, to William Crammond, Edward Tilghman, John Ashley, and Thomas Stewardson, trustees of the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, as the said two tracts were part of the estate of Meese and Caldwell.

Whereupon the Board having considered the same, ordered that at least sixty days notice be given in one of the Philadelphia newspapers, and in the Lancaster Journal to the said Collins or his assigns, to appear before the Board on the first Monday in October next, to shew cause if any he or they have, why patents should not issue for the said two tracts to the said trustees agreeably to the prayer of the said petition.

The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 18.

TO THE PRINTER,

There being Errors in my Address of yesterday No. VI. to the Managers of the Alms House, I request it may be re-published, as follows:

No. VI.

To the Managers of the Alms House and House of Employ.

GENTLEMEN,

IN No. 5 I have shewed that for three years past you have paid no more than one hundred and fifteen cents per week for your patients in the Pennsylvania Hospital, and not three dollars as W. and Charitas endeavor to make appear. But their statement is altogether a deception and ought to be exposed; for they do not take into calculation any of those patients who have been admitted formerly at a very low rate, whose board has never been raised, nor those received on charity without any charge but for cloathing* and funeral expences. If it be necessary further to elucidate and confirm my statement respecting the actual cost of your paupers in the hospital, I refer to the accounts rendered to your board at a late meeting for the last year's expences; by which you will observe the average cost is at this very time, no more than 118 cents each.

With as much confidence, and the same view of blinding the eyes of the public, and if possible leading me off from my intended exposure of the real state of things, W and Charitas contend in your favor, that paupers in the Alms House cost no more than a dollar a week, when if the truth was known, I have reason to believe they cost two at least. To give a correct account is however impossible without knowing the exact amount of your debts which are not yet paid. These I have good reason to believe were forty thousand dollars when your last annual account was stated; and the whole was contracted within the last two years, for by your account in 1797 it appears you did not owe two thousand pounds; and I am well informed you had several thousand pounds more of taxes in arrears, to collect, than was sufficient to pay it. I will therefore take twenty thousand dollars for granted, to be the expences of the last year, not yet paid, or included in your annual account, and proceed,

	Dls.	Cts.
By your annual statement No. 2. the actual sum expended for the support of paupers is £12,284 11 7, or	32,758	88
Add, debts contracted, but not paid, from 1798, to 1799,	20,000
Repairs for one year I will say on an average, are - - - - -	286	67
Two Swine per diem I suppose you received in the year, except on Sabbath days, for which I expect you paid one dollar and sixty seven cents each, and charged it, being half the value due to the person who brings them to the Alms House, say 626 at 1 67 which ought to be to your debit, but we do not find it,	1,043	33
Butter, veal, sausages, fish and pork, forfeited, which you publish no account of, but is carried to your house by the Clerk of the Market.	100	40
Total expence of the year, for 605 persons, is - - - - -	£4,169	28

Or 172 cents a week for each person,—which is 57 cents more than the hospital have charged, and makes an aggregate saving of one thousand four hundred and twenty two dollars and seventy two cents per annum for the last three years.

In proof of which I exhibit the following statement, viz.

48 in the Alms House 52 weeks at 172 cents, is - - - - -	4,293	12
48 in the Hospital 52 weeks at 115 cents, is - - - - -	2,870	40
Difference saved to the Guardians to the poor is per annum -	1,422	72

Having now proved that the price is less in the Hospital than in the Alms-House, if it is asked in which institution the most care is taken of the patients, I would recommend my fellow citizens to visit both houses and they will be able to judge.

* Charitas says, I well knew a considerable part of the cloathing for near 2000 persons was made in the course of the last year in the house of employ;—but I will prove the contrary—see your manufactory accounts, viz. No. 3, manufactured goods, consumed in the house £338 0 3—that among 2000 people is about 3/4 each, which instead of being enough to cloath them, would scarcely pay for sealing and mending their shoes.

☞ The Members of the Society of the Sons of ST. GEORGE, established at Philadelphia, for the advice and assistance of Englishmen in distress, are requested to attend a Quarterly Meeting of the said Society, at the City Tavern on Tuesday the 23d day of July instant, at 7 o'Clock in the evening.

No accounts yet received of the Election in Kentucky and Tennessee.

*(Gentlemen not of the last House.)

It is tolerably well ascertained, that Phanuel Bishop, Esq. is chosen Representative for the third southern district of Massachusetts, vice honorable Mr. Bullock. This decision is the consequence of the criminal supineness of the Federalists. In the first southern district, another trial must take place. Mr. Williams will probably be chosen.

CHARLESTON, June 22.

Mr. Fussel's new Patent for a Balance Lock for a Canal.

The inland navigation of England by Canals, has gradually become an object of infinite commercial importance. A very considerable portion of the capital of the nation, has been laid out in forming canals: the intercourse, and the conveyances of traffic, have been very much facilitated wherever canals have been cut. A very high annual income to the proprietors of canals is yielded, as the regular commercial return from the money which has been expended upon them. Every year in consequence of these things, is marked by new projects for the extension of these channels of internal navigation. A considerable share of the mechanical ingenuity of the nation has been exerted in this interesting province. This new profession of civil engineers, find here their chief employment; and canal navigation is in a train of improvement to the highest perfection of which it is susceptible.

No one particular in the construction of canals, is of greater consequence or difficulty, than that which regards the connecting of canals of different levels into one course of uninterrupted navigation. It is often impossible, without an exorbitant increase of an expence which is always very great, to form a channel for a canal, of one invarying level throughout the whole tract through which it is to be conducted. If, in such cases, means might be contrived for the convenient raising or lowering of the vessels in the canal, from one level to another, it is easy to see that there would be a mighty improvement accomplished. To answer this end, various means have been at different times, adopted. In China, it has long been usual to raise or lower boats from one leval of a canal to another, by means of balance boats kept in reserve at the locks at which the change of level takes place. Mr. Robb, a Scottish clergyman, about 13 or 14 years since, suggested, among his friends, a very simple adoption of the Chinese contrivance to the use of British canals; it was talked of as ingenious, but carried no farther towards execution. More recently, an invitation, the same in principle, was proposed for the same uses by Dr. James Anderson, a man to whose activity and originality of genius, the arts in Britain are very highly indebted.

Mr. James Fussell, iron manufacturer of the country of Somerset (Eng.) has just obtained the king's letters patent, securing him from the usual space of time, the sole right to a balance lock which he has invented for the same raising or lowering of boats between different levels in a canal. So far as we can judge from inspecting the specification of the invention, it is likely to prove very useful. We sincerely wish the author every reasonable share of honor and emolument from his invention.

Mr. Fitzgerald's patent for a Signal-Trumpet.

The minds of ingenious men have for some time been turned considerably to the improvement of different arts connected with warfare. Mr. Clerk's new system of signals, &c. for the use of a fleet at sea, during a naval engagement, are said to have essentially contributed to the great victory which was gained by lord Duncan. The Telegraph was found to deserve, by its important utility, to be quickley borrowed, though an invention of the French, for the use of Britain.

William Fitzgerald, esq. has obtained a patent for the sole manufacture and sale of a signal trumpet which he has recently invented for encreasing the powers of sound, by sea or on land. The signal is to be given by the application of a trumpet to a pistol, or any other convenient piece of fire arms, or small artillery, in such a manner that the sound of the discharge of a pistol &c. may be augmented by it just as that of the human voice might be by the speaking trumpet. The peculiarity of the invention consists in the idea of the application of the trumpet to augment the sound from the discharge of any piece of fire arms, and in the contrivance of the apparatus, by which the trumpet is connected with the piece to be fired. It has been made trial of by a committee of general military officers, whose approbation it has received. It may become useful to a variety of occasions at sea and on land.

BELFAST, May 7.

The following perſons were ſent on board the Poſtlethwaite, in order to ſerve his Pruſſian Majeſty:—viz. John M'Carager, John Hutchiſon, Wm. Allan, Thos. Dick, Thos. White and Arthur Kenny.

We underſtand that the perſons who have been ordered to ſerve as above, have either been tried, and the puniſhment commuted, or committed by Magiſtrates under the inſurrection act.

The different Yeomanry Corps in this diſtrict have been called on permanent duty, in conſequence of intelligence having been received of the French fleet being at ſea.

BALLYMENA, April 27.

On the night of Thurſday laſt an armed gang came to the houſe of David and Charles Moor, of Craigs, declaring they were ordered to give them 500 laſhes each. The door was ſo well ſecured, that after ſeveral fruitleſs attempts to force it, they were obliged to deſiſt. They then broke open a window, and after firing ſeveral ſhots into it, their leader attempted to enter but was driven back with a pitchfork, the only weapon the Moors had. It rained ſo violently that they failed in an attempt to ſet the houſe on fire, on which they departed. One of the Moors knowing ſeveral of them, gave information to the Portglenone cavalry who immediately ſet out in ſearch of them, but they had all fled the country.—We cannot help thinking that the gallant behaviour of the Moors deſerves public encouragement; and we ſincerely wiſh it may be more generally imitated.

DONACHADEE, May 6.

This evening a King's meſſenger ſailed on board the Hillſborough, with government diſpatches.

The Greyabbey, Portavo, and Donahadee Yeomen companies were this evening put on permanent duty.

KILKENY, April 17.

LONDONDERRY, April 30.

On Wedneſday laſt a General Court Martial aſſembled in this garriſon by order of Major general Nugent, of which Colonel Adeane, of Cambridge light Dragoons, was Preſident, and Capt. Halton, of ditto, Deputy Judge Advocate, and Judge Martial.

The Court proceeded to the trial of Alexander Galloway, gunner in the Royal Iriſh Artillery, upon the following charge, preferred againſt him by capt. Tattem, of the Somerſet Regiment.

"That he on the 14th of April inſt. (being then on duty at the Eaſt Fort, on Lough Swilly) did in a mutinous and inſolent manner take Captain Tattem by the collar, tear his ſhirt and ſmite him in the face, he Capt. Tattem being then commanding officer of the Fort.

On Thurſday the proceedings of this trial were finally cloſed, and ſent off the following day to Dublin, for the approbation of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant. The Court then proceeded to the trial of Charles Logan and William Simpſon, countrymen from Enniſhowen, upon a charge "of having each of them a gun in their poſſeſſion, contrary to various proclamations and orders." This trial being finiſhed, the ſame day, was immediately ſent off to Gen. Nugent, for his approbation; and the Court adjourned till further orders.

EDINBURGH, May 2.

We formerly mentioned that a gentleman of ſome reſpectability in this city had been engaged in aiding ſome French priſoners to make their eſcape from this country. Out of delicacy to the party we did not then mention the name till the circumſtances ſhould be more fully inveſtigated. We are now authorized to ſay that gentleman is the Rev. Mr. Fitzſimons, one of the Epiſcopal miniſters of this city. What was formerly mentioned of the circumſtances attending their mode of eſcape was correct. Mr. Fitzſimons, in his declaration ſays, that they came to his houſe, and intreated him to allow them to remain there till the ſailing of the cartel, and that out of a principle of humanity he conſented to do ſo. When the cartel was about to ſail he went down to Newhaven, and procured a boat which carried them on board.

The cartel returned ſome weeks ago to Leigh, and one of the ſeamen having mentioned the foregoing particulars, an inveſtigation immediately took place; the two Newhaven fiſhermen belonging to the boat were diſcovered, apprehended, and examined. Mr. Fitzſimons was alſo ſent for, and underwent a long examination before the Magiſtrates, and the account he gave of the tranſaction is nearly what we have ſtated.

It appeared that Mr. Fitzſimons being acquainted with the priſoners, aroſe from the following circumſtance;—A perſon at Ayr, who has a ſon ſettled at Dunkirk, wrote to him to advance ſome money to a man (a priſoner in the caſtle) to whoſe relations at Dunkirk his ſon lay under obligations; which he accordingly did from time to time.

The two fiſhermen and the maſter of the cartel are in cuſtody, and Mr. Fitzſimons has been admitted to bail.

We underſtand that this matter will ſoon undergo a diſcuſſion before a Court of Juſtice.

DUBLIN, May 8.

In the courſe of Sunday, expreſſes arrived at the Caſtle from Cork, ſtating, that on Thurſday laſt the fleet under Lord Bridport's directions, the Pollyphemus of 64 guns, had left Cove in order to reinforce him.

By Plymouth letters of the 30th, received in town yeſterday, we have received a rumour the Cæſar of 80 guns, having fallen amongſt the French fleet ſingly, had been taken; but for this we have reaſon to think there can be no foundation in truth.

For this ſome time paſt, the price of green pork, per hundred, has been riſing each week and laſt week, it is ſtated that it roſe 18d. ſtill however, it is cheap in compariſon of beef and mutton, both of which continue extravagantly dear, Bacon has alſo been riſing this month paſt, and very probably will be higher than what it is at preſent. Freſh butter has experienced a ſmall reduction, but bowl and tub butter remain the ſame, which is attributed to its ſcarcity at market, very little being brought in from the country parts.

Malt was laſt week, from 1l. 7s. to 1l. 11s. the barrel, which is ſome ſmall reduction in price. There was only twenty barrels of barley at market, which ſold at 21s. the barrel. Oats from 13s. to ſhillings the barrel. middle price 14s. 7hd. Oatmeal, from 15s. to 17s. 6d. the hundred weight, middle price 16s. 3d. Wheat from 1l. 11s. to 2l. 1s. 6d. the barrel, middle price 1l. 15s. 6d. Whiſkey, twenty per cent above proof, from 7s to 7s. 4d. the gallon."

The Weſt York regiment of militia which arrived laſt week is commanded by Earl Fitzwilliam, late Vicer[illegible] of this kingdom. This corps is compoſed of very fine looking men, whoſe cloathing is remarkably good.

By this Day's Mail.

SALEM, July 12.

On Tueſday laſt the ſhip Uyſſes, Capt. Joſiah Orne, arrived here from Bengal.

In India, the Engliſh exhibit the ſame proofs of naval ſuperiority over the French, as in every other quarter of the globe.—A few days before the Ulyſſes left Bengal, Capt. Orne informs us, the French 54 gun ſhip La Forte, was towed into the river, a mere hulk without a ſpar ſtanding, taken, after an action of 75 minutes, by La Sybille of 44 guns, Capt. Cook, who came in at the ſame time under full ſail.——La Sybille had been to convoy the Governor-General, Earl Mornington, with his ſuit, from Calcutta to Madras, having at the ſame time a large amount of ſpecie on board for the pay of the Britiſh troops in the Carnatic. On her return, off the Sand Heads, ſhe fell in with La Forte; the Sybille received two broadſides from her antagoniſt before ſhe fired a gun; but when ſhe had gained the poſition ſhe wiſhed, ſhe poured in ſuch a terrible fire upon La Forte, as ſoon carried away all her maſts, killed the Captain and firſt Lieutenant, and deſtroyed about one half of the crew; receiving herſelf but a very trifling injury.

La Forte was recently from the Iſle of France, had been off the Sand Heads ſome time, where ſhe had taken ſeveral veſſels, among others the Oſterly E. Indiaman from Madras, which ſhe had ſent in with priſoners. She had the deſcription of every Britiſh veſſel at Calcutta; but the officers ſaid they had no intention of moleſting American veſſels. The Capt. of La Forte was well known and reſpected at Calcutta, and had behaved with great humanity on every occaſion.

Capt. Cooke commanded La Sybille in this action; and it is remarkable that he had taken this ſhip alſo from the French, in the Mediterranean, in the early part of the war, with a 32 gun frigate, which he then commanded.* In the conqueſt of La Forte, he received a ſlight wound. Though the Engliſh have aſſembled a moſt formidable army in the Carnatic, yet we do not underſtand that Tippoo had made a declaration of war, or commenced actual hoſtilities; but that he had withheld the tributes ſtipulated by treaty, and had taken other meaſures which indicated an intention of hoſtilities. It was however expected, that the failure of Buonaparte in forming a junction with him, and of the deſigns of the French with Zemaun Shaw, together with the very formidable army which the Engliſh had prepared to meet him, would induce him once more to make overtures for a ſettlement.

[* This is a miſtake: it was capt. Paget, in the Romney, who captured La Sybille.]

SEVENTEENTH JULY.

The naval ports of England, are ſtripped of ſhipping; which have been ſent in queſt of the French fleet. The dolphin never haraſſed the flying fiſh more than the Engliſh will harraſs the Flying fry of France and Spain.

The celebration of the 17th inſt. will be the free will offering of grateful Conſtituents to the Political Fathers of the Country, for one of the moſt important and beneficial Laws which grace the archieves of our country.

PORTLAND, July 8.

SUPREME COURT.

Laſt Tueſday, the Supreme Judicial Court was opened in this town, when an excellent charge was given to the grand jury, by the Hon. Judge Dana, in which he made the moſt pertinent remarks in juſtification of the alien and ſedition bills, proving their conſtitutionality. In the courſe of the charge, the learned judge was lengthy and pointed in his obſervations of the late publications in the Independent Chronicle printed at Boſton, reſpecting the trial of Abijah Adams. Thoſe publications were in part, evidently falſe and inflammatory, tending to deceive the ignorant, and miſlead the public mind. The whole of the charge breathed the principles of true liberty and genuine patriotiſm. We are ſorry that we cannot preſent it at large to the public, through the channel of our paper.

NEW-LONDON, July 13.

We underſtand that the ſhip of war Connecticut, was pumped out, and raiſed from her watery bed on Tueſday laſt.

An honeſt mechanic, who had been led aſtray by ſome of the "French Tools," in this place, a few days ſince confeſſed to his neighbor, a federaliſt, that he had been ſo far duped as to believe the government of the United States more deſpotic than that of Turkey. He had been told and ſuppoſed it a fact that the conſtitution was trodden under foot, that property and perſon, as in France, lay at the mercy of the government; that there was neither law nor juſtice in the land, excepting for the rich. His alarm on the ſubject had given him more unhappineſs than every other worldly care, having cauſed him many a ſleepleſs night. But he was now convinced he had been deceived, and was not aſhamed to confeſs it. How callous to every good principle, how abominably wicked muſt the ſeducers of ſuch men be. This perſon is a profeſſor of the religion of Chriſt, and poſſeſſes a good moral character; but ſo infatuated has he been by the ſophiſtry and falſhood of the diſciples of Talleyrand and Paine, as lately to have wiſhed ſucceſs to the French cauſe which is confeſſedly ſubverſive of Chriſtianity, and palpably deſtructive of thoſe moral and ſocial ties without which mankind would be debaſed even lower than the wild beaſts.

When I ſee men neglecting their buſineſs, going about under the garb of friendſhip, ſeeking like Judas to betray with a kiſs; corrupting their minds with abſurd and chimerical notions of liberty, and deſtroying their peace of mind by lies and miſrepreſentations, I feel an indignation which my reſolution is barely able to reſiſt. The laws ſhould puniſh the miſcreants.

CARLISLE, July 10.

On Thurſday laſt, the birth-day of American Independence was celebrated here with truly patriotic feſtivity. The riſing ſun was greeted by ſixteen diſcharges of artillery from the public Square. About 10 o'clock the Infantry and Cavalry paraded in the ſquare, and afterward proceeded to the Preſbyterian Church, where ſeveral patriotic and animated orations were delivered by the ſtudents of Dickinſon College, that being the time of the Quarterly Examination.

The uniformed troops accompanied by the citizens then marched to the delightful ſeat of Mr. Andrew Holmes, and partook of a cold collation——After dinner the following Toaſt were drank accompanied by diſcharges from the Infantry:

1ſt. The day we celebrate.
2. The United States.
3. The Preſident.
4. General Waſhington.
5. The Congreſs of the United States.
6. The real friends of our conſtitution—the friends of our preſent government.
7. The Army of the United States.
8. The riſing Navy of America, the ſhield of our Commerce.
9. Ability and Integrity united—our preſent Adminiſtration.
10. The memory of thoſe heroes who have fallen as the price of our Independence.
11. The ſtate of Virginia—her honeſt men are looking up.
12. Our Cities bleſt with health and commerce, and our country with fruitful ſeaſons and bountiful harveſts.
13. Relief to the oppreſſed throughout the world, whether ſuffering under imperial or directorial deſpotiſm.

The moment the Directory aſcertained by their Logans, that the oppoſition in Congreſs to energetic meaſures, for providing an army and navy, would fail, they changed their tone of contempt, and menace towards the United States, and have ever ſince endeavoured by a half kind of courtſhip, made through Hitchcocks and miniſters clerks, to inveigle our government into new propoſals for negotiation. The United States ſhip Herald, captain Ruſſell, arrived at Boſton, on Thurſday laſt, from Charleſton and a cruize.

COMMUNICATED.

On Monday afternoon between three and four o'clock, a gentleman was aſſaulted and beat in a cruel manner, in Fourth Street, near the Academy, by a man who ſaid his name was Hugh Lindſay, and that he was "an Iriſhman." This daring attack, as collected from the accounts then given, was in conſequence of Lindſay's having been ſued for a juſt demand for Rent, and that he choſe to have ſuch ſatisfaction. It is to be hoped a due puniſhment will follow ſuch violaters of the laws of ſociety; and that reſpectable and peaceable citizens may not be in danger of aſſaſſination and inſult by unprincipled men.

Extract of a letter from Eaſton, Pennſylvania.

"Perhaps it may afford you ſome amuſement to learn in what manner the 4th of July was ſpent in this town. It will be neceſſary previouſly to inform you, that captain Henry Shnyder had the command of a company of Light Infantry. Captain Raiſton of a company of Rangers, and Captain Spering of a Troop of Horſe.

The ſeveral Captains had previouſly notified their reſpective companies and troop to meet on that day. Captain Shnyder's company met in front of the Court Houſe, when to my ſurpriſe I beheld one of his ſerjeants, who, till within a ſhort time was an alien, but lately became a citizen, exciting a mutiny in the company, and ſeparating from the captain and officers, and the largeſt number of the men followed him; the others like good citizens and orderly ſoldiers adhered to their officers: then the ſeparate diviſions paraded the ſtreets of the town.

Capt. Raiſton with his officers and men dined in a grove on the ſouth ſide of Lehigh river; after dinner capt. Raiſton marched his men into the town, and requeſted captain Shnyder to join him with the remnant of his company, who had not joined the mutineers. While this junction was forming I was really aſtoniſhed to ſee capt. Spering with his troop, joined by that of capt. Hutcheſon of Mount Bethel, accompanying the mutinous ſergeant with his revolutioniſts through the ſtreets of this town, in military parade, the ſergeant marching in the van. In theſe parading marches it ſo happened that the companies formed by captains Shnyder and Raiſton fell in with the mutinous ſergeant, followed by the two captains and troops of horſe, and were marching the ſame rout in the ſame ſtreet, when captains Shnyder and Raiſton made a halt, and remonſtrated againſt the impropriety of ſuch military conduct, conſidering it as an inſult, to ſee a parcel of mutineers coming in ſuch a way, ſo highly honored by the two troops of horſe. Lieutenant Kelly of captain Raiſton's rangers, conducted himſelf on the occaſion with a particular ſpirit and gentleman like behavior. The parties then ſeparated and met no more in the ſame array.

Many of the troopers, to their honor be it mentioned, highly reprobated the conduct thus impoſed upon them by capt. Spering; by ordering them to pay ſo great reſpect to this revolutionary ſerjeant and his mutineers; and were on the point of quitting their ranks had they not been ordered to march a different direction.

Thus, my friend, you ſee we have men amongſt us high in truſt and office, that will neglect no opportunity, when they find one, to pay the higheſt compliments to diſorganizers, even if it is found in the perſon of a rebellious ſerjeant and a few followers. But perhaps I may be wrong in my cenſure, not being a military than myſelf, it is poſſible I may have formed erroneous opinions on the occaſion."

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch-Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation, They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has bren taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviour of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns, spoken of with the highest satisfaction.
